

2010 . Mustang Island Conference Center . 2010

† A Ministry of Christian Hospitality †
Episcopal Diocese of West Texas

Vocare

March 5 – 7

Renewal weekend for college students and young adults. As these two groups discover and examine worthwhile relationship choices, careers, and life commitments, Vocare makes clear that each of these is a call from God.

Mustang Island Family Camp Spring Break!

March 15 – 18 Monday - Thursday

Four days and three nights of family recreation and relaxation in Christian community. The Sun will shine on your family regardless of the weather elsewhere. DWTX Member Family $605. Others $705. Add $100. for each adult beyond the first two and for each guest not a member of immediate family. Join the fun and herald spring!

The Call of Stories

April 8 – 10 Thursday - Saturday

Led by the Rev. Charlie Cook, beloved Professor Emeritus of Pastoral Theology of The Episcopal Seminary of the Southwest where he taught for twenty-five years as a member of the theological faculty. The Rev. Cook discovered a love of Southern literature when he was a young priest in Chapel Hill, NC, and he enjoys sharing, with humor and insight, how faith and fiction inform one another. Explore some of the great Southern writers of our time, identify with the issues that confront their characters and engage in dialogue about what they appear to be telling us about the meaning of life and the relationship of God to it all. Double Occupancy: $300. Single Occupancy: $360.

Clothing Ourselves with Christ: How to Live as Christ in the World

April 30 – May 2

The Rev. Dr. Ray Pickett, Professor of New Testament at the Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago, renowned scholar and valued retreat leader, will lecture and lead group conversations interpreting the scriptures of the N.T. for wholehearted living. The Rev. Drs. Jane Patterson and John Lewis from The Work+Shop will also participate.

To register for this outstanding retreat opportunity: kbuzzini@theworkshop-sa.org or 210.599.4224.

Cursillo #249

May 13 – 16

Cursillo #250

October 14 - 17

Cursillo gives participants the tools and “rules of life” to share the joys of knowing Christ with others and is patterned after Jesus’ own example. Speak to your clergy or parish Cursillo representative about Cursillo or visit the diocesan website at www.dwtx.org/SpiritualFormation

Contemplative Christ Centered Prayer Retreats

May 20 – 23 and October 17 - 22

Simplicity, Stillness, Solitude, Scripture, Sacrament, and some Silence. Experience the fruits of Christ Centered Prayer supported by the natural beauty of land, sky, and sea. Consent to intimacy with the risen Christ and gain insight into that relationship. The Rev. Sandy Casey-Martus, adjunct faculty member of the ESSW and former 11 year member of Father Thomas Keating’s Contemplative Outreach National Retreat and Formation Leadership Teams and one-time Director of the Alta Retreat Center, will teach and facilitate. An introduction to Christ Centered Prayer will accompany each retreat. All are welcome. Visit www.christcenteredprayer.com to learn more.
